Planning for 2007 Reflection Ball Underway

Papillion, Neb., May 1, 2007 - Midlands Community Foundation is pleased to announce that proceeds from the organization's 2007 Reflection Ball on Oct. 6 will benefit Heartland Family Service, a non-profit social work agency that provides educational programs, counseling and support services for individuals and families.

The 2007 Reflection Ball will be held at the Embassy Suites in downtown Omaha. At the event, the Reflection Award will be presented to distinguished community leaders, Al and Dottie Schmid, for their extraordinary generosity and continued involvement with Midlands Community Foundation.

Heading the event are Honorary Chair Jim Nagengast, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of Securities America, Inc., and President of the Heartland Family Service Board of Directors; Chair Diane Knicky; and Vice-Chair Deidre Henton.

The mission of the Midlands Community Foundation is to serve the health and well being of communities in Sarpy and Cass counties through contributions to benefit non-profit and service organizations in these areas.
