Midlands Community Foundation to Host
28th Annual Golf Tournament

Papillion, Neb., April 10, 2009 – Midlands Community Foundation will host its 28th annual golf tournament at Platteview Country Club on Monday, May 18, with a shotgun start at 12, noon. The event will conclude with a steak dinner and awards ceremony following golf.

Each year, Midlands Community Foundation awards grants to many worthy organizations. This support creates productive and rewarding changes in the Sarpy and Cass county communities. The funds raised at this year's tournament will benefit Midlands Community Foundation so it can continue to assist these organizations with their financial needs.

Sponsorship opportunities are available. The $125 participant registration fee includes golf, sack lunch, two chances in putting contest, two mulligans, two complimentary beverages and ice cream, and steak dinner. To register or for more information, contact Midlands Community Foundation at 991-8027 or visit www.MidlandsCommunity.org.

The mission of the Midlands Community Foundation is to serve the health and well being of communities in Sarpy and Cass counties through contributions to benefit non-profit and service organizations in these areas.
