Midlands Community Foundation Announces
2009 Reflection Ball Committee

Papillion, Neb., June 8, 2009 – Midlands Community Foundation is pleased to announce the Honorary Chairs and Committee for its 2009 Reflection Ball scheduled for Saturday, November 14 at the Embassy Suites in LaVista. Honorary Chairs are Jim and Nancy Thompson, long-time residents of Sarpy County and supporters of the Foundation. The Committee, headed by event Chair Leanne Sotak and Vice-Chair Carrie Krist, includes: Kyle Black, Jackie Boryca, Brenda Carlson, Linda Clatterbuck, Stephanie Crandall, Jan Davis, Maureen Egermier, Mary Gawecki, Tonee Gay, Jill Govier, Mary Beth Harrold, Deidre Henton, Diane Knicky, Jim Krist, Bonnie Miller, Marlo Monico, Bernie Roshone-Pacha, Karla Rupiper, Fay Sampson, Toni Schropp, Kristin Vance, Jenna Vasko, Tina Vasko, Donna Wilcox and Kris Zey.

The annual Reflection Ball, in its 28th year, generates much needed financial support for the programs and services of non-profit organizations within Sarpy and Cass counties. It is the hard work and dedication of the Reflection Ball Committee that ensures this everlasting impact on our communities.

The mission of Midlands Community Foundation is to benefit the diverse needs of the Sarpy and Cass county communities by providing financial support, involvement and service. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars to many worthy organizations with an emphasis toward prevention and education in the areas of health, art, culture, community, education, economic development and human services.
