Midlands Community Foundation's 30th Annual Reflection Ball Raises More Than $130,000

Papillion, Neb., January 9, 2012 – Midlands Community Foundation's 30th Annual Reflection Ball, held on January 7 at the Embassy Suites in LaVista, raised more than $130,000. More than 450 guests attended the gala. Proceeds from the event will be donated to Mosaic, a nonprofit organization serving people with intellectual disabilities, providing opportunities for them to enjoy a full life.

At the event, the Reflection Award was presented to Dr. Jeffry and Lisa Strohmeyer for their commitment to our community and their countless hours of volunteer service, particularly in the areas of health care and education.

Heading the event were Honorary Chairs John and Cathie Fullenkamp; Chair Jackie Boryca; and Co-Chair Kyle Black.

The mission of Midlands Community Foundation is to benefit the diverse needs of the Sarpy and Cass county communities by providing financial support, involvement and service.
