Planning for 30th Annual Reflection Ball Underway

Papillion, Neb., June 23, 2011 – Midlands Community Foundation is pleased to announce that planning is underway for its 30th Annual Reflection Ball. The Ball is scheduled for Saturday, January 7, 2012, at Embassy Suites in LaVista. Proceeds will benefit Mosaic, a faith-based, non-profit organization serving people with intellectual disabilities.

At the event, the Reflection Award will be presented to Dr. Jeffrey and Lisa Strohmyer, for their commitment to community service and support of Midlands Community Foundation.

Heading the event are Honorary Chairs John and Cathie Fullenkamp; Chair Jackie Boryca; and Vice-Chair Kyle Black.

The mission of Midlands Community Foundation is to benefit the diverse needs of the Sarpy and Cass county communities by providing financial support, involvement and service.
